

Current Internet Law Reforms – No End to Legislative Confusion [GER ONLY]

2. June 2021

An Article by Dr. Linn-Karen Fischer

German Internet law is becoming increasingly opaque as a result of numerous reforms. For video sharing platforms in particular, the latest innovations brought about by the AVMSD add further delimitation difficulties to their catalog of obligations. An overview of the current developments is provided by Linn-Karen Fischer.

The Article is available in German language only.

You can read it here